Talmadge Park, Inc. and New England Health Care Employees Union, District 1199, SEIU. Case 34— CA-12003

June 26, 2008

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN SCHAUMBER AND MEMBER LIEBMAN

This is a refusal-to-bargain case in which the Respondent is contesting the Union's certification as bargaining representative in the underlying representation proceeding. Pursuant to a charge filed on March 13, 2008, the General Counsel issued the complaint on March 21, 2008, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 34-RC-2136. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer, admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint, and alleging an affirmative defense.

On April 22, 2008, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment and Memorandum in Support of Motion. On May 13, 2008, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment¹

In its answer and response, the Respondent admits that it has refused to bargain, but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of its objections to the election in the representation proceeding and its assertion that the Board's decision in the representation proceeding is inconsistent with Oakwood Healthcare, Inc., 348 NLRB No. 37 (2006).

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a Connecticut corporation with a facility located in East Haven, Connecticut, has been engaged in the operation of a nursing home providing skilled nursing care.

During the 12-month period ending February 29, 2008, the Respondent, in conducting its operations described above, derived gross revenues in excess of $100,000 and purchased and received at its facility goods valued in excess of $5,000 directly from points outside the State of Connecticut.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6) and (7) of the Act and a health care institution within the meaning of Section 2(14) of the Act, and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the representation election held on September 8, 2005, the Union was certified on December 28, 2007, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time and regular part-time certified nursing assistants (CNAs), lead CNAs, housekeeping employees, laundry employees, cooks, dietary aides, cook/dietary aides, carpenter, nurse scheduler, receptionists, courier, physical therapy/rehab aide, and maintenance employees employed by the Respondent at its East Haven, Connecticut facility; but excluding licensed practical nurses, the RCP/MDS Coordinator, the administrator, director of nurses, assistant director of nurses, dietary service director, business office manager, assistant business office manager, environmental services director, recreation program director, rehabilitation director, social services director, shift supervisors, and guards, other professional employees and other supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

¹ Effective midnight December 28, 2007, Members Liebman, Schaumber, Kirsanow, and Walsh delegated to Members Liebman, Schaumber, and Kirsanow, as a three-member group, all of the Board's powers in anticipation of the expiration of the terms of Members Kirsanow and Walsh on December 31, 2007. Pursuant to this delegation, Chairman Schaumber and Member Liebman constitute a quorum of the three-member group. As a quorum, they have the authority to issue decisions and orders in unfair labor practice and representation cases. See Sec. 3(b) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

By letters dated January 10 and February 11, 2008, the Union requested, inter alia, that the Respondent bargain collectively with it as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the Unit. Since about January 10, 2008, the Respondent has failed and refused to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. We find that this failure and refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By failing and refusing since about January 10, 2008, to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit employees, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).
